

Our ten challenges for Companies during the 2018-19 session are:

Use the boxes below to \checkmark off each challenge and to make notes

Get together as a staff team – formally and socially come together to plato share and to celebrate. Consider how you involve your young people especially Seniors. What learning or training needs can you identify?
2 Set a target number per section – when did you last consider what your target numbers were? Consider realistic numbers based on your constraints (meeting space, volunteers, etc) and also whether you need to focus on specific age groups.
3 Being Welcoming – We've got one chance to impress, consider how you welcome new members and what you provide them and their parents/carers with to set expectations and provide all they need to know.

Look to bring	in new activities to your	e sure you are planning at least a t programme which will help toward mme. Consider what skills you will I	ls ensuri between the E join in with BB	BB Company and the Ch activities, whilst also loo s. Consider how you sha	- with a view to strengthening the poly nurch make opportunities for the co oking at how the Company can engure what you are doing through the	ongregat gage wit port with things that you	ompany or another youth on cannot achieve alone, this could be	_ ough social and local me	Dmmunity – take the time to sha edia. Ensure that there is local awai for both leade could free up	ers and parents/carers by	streamline your administration and y maximising the use of OBM. Imposon the programme and building re	ortantly

	9 Look at Fees – Consider value for money vs what it costs to run a Company. Have you looked at income and expenditure? What is reasonable to charge the children and young people? What additional resources do we need and how can we go about getting these?
U	10 Take action to make a difference to others – Get your young people and leaders active in the local community through campaigning, fundraising and hands-on volunteering.

Let us know how you get on by sharing your thoughts and stories on social media using #RaiseTheBarBB or email newsdesk@boys-brigade.org.uk